

We are so thrilled at this wonderful honor you have received, Jinhua. We remember vividly when you first came to Canada, with so much promise. You have fulfilled all that promise and more, to become the leading voice for the study of Chinese Buddhism in Canada and elsewhere. The field is in debt to you for all that you do, and we feel grateful and humble to have been part of your journey.

Koichi and Phyllis